Alison Lukes et Cie is Washington's premier closet consultant, personal shopper and stylist.

The secret to her success

You definitely know her. She looks perfectly polished and effortlessly chic every time you see her, and is the type of girl that has a manicure/pedicure perfectly penned between chairing a fundraiser and doing her own taxes on her list of things to do.

How does she do it? Will you ever know her secret?

Alison Lukes will not only tell you how to look great, she will come to your house and show you. This DC-native and personal stylist draws on her experience under Michael Kors in New York, to help her clients achieve their style goals.

Lukes will clean out and organize your closet, assess and shape your personal style, and shop for what you're missing to create a more stylish you. Not only achieving a pulled-together look, but a pulled-together wardrobe where you will always have the perfect thing to wear.

For her clients and herself, Lukes has mastered the art of looking chic and timeless, choosing pieces that reflect her clients' personal style, all without falling victim to trends.

Contrary to the belief that such services are only for the ultra affluent, Lukes encourages everyone to consider their own wardrobe and need for a stylist.

Perhaps you haven't mastered the balance of business casual, have a black tie event you just can't find the right dress for or need an objective eye to edit your closet and tell you what needs to be tossed----a personal stylist is something to consider.
